<< The Story Up Until Now >>

Hibiki is a third year in high school. She is actually going out with her homeroom teacher Ito in secret. While being protected by her close friends Kousuke and Chirchan, she has come to receive or has ride the stormy seas of love. Nevertheless, she's pulled into the wily intrigues of first-year Shirakawa Arita, who tries to steal senses. She goes as far as to seduce Chirchan's boyfriend Nagisa, and make a mess of human relationships. Just as Arita expects, Hibiki is forced to break up with senses, but their bonds are strong, and they are able to escape the crisis. Chirchan and Nagisa, on the other hand, are in a pinch. They can't ignore Arita any longer! Hibiki and her friends press Arita for answers. However...

P. H. STRONG-ARM ATOM
10th YEAR, MIDDLE SCHOOL

In conclusion, I'll first say that, even if made to either party to continue having a relationship if you don't like him! Even though you feel someone you want out with in the past, because he likes you, he goes for it. There's a paper-thin distinction between going out because you might develop feelings and going out because you're lonely. I think that you need to consider whether or not feelings for T-kun won't change no matter what. Even if things are going well between you two, you should consider him to your life (boyfriend). If you really can't develop feelings for T-kun, then in the long run, it's better to break up.
